

The Winchester Appeal

IS PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY
GEO. E. PURVIS AND WM. J. SLATTER.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
TWO DOLLARS A YEAR IN ADVANCE;
TWO AND A HALF IF IN SIX MONTHS;
THREE AT THE CLOSE OF THE YEAR.

RELIGIOUS.—The second quarterly meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church commences at this place to-day, Rev. WILLIAM DOSS Presiding Elder. Preaching this morning at 11 o'clock.

A man was arrested at Pelham and brought to this place last Monday, on suspicion of his having murdered McBride at Henderson, Tenn., which happened some time since. It seems that the circumstances amply justified his arrest, as his actions, after he arrived in Pelham, all tended to arouse suspicion. He filled the description given in the Nashville Union by the citizens of Henderson, who offered a reward of seven hundred dollars for his arrest. In the possession of this man was a pair of bloody pants, and in his pocket was found a deck of cards. Appearances are against him.

On the 8th day of April there will be an extensive sale of valuable property at the residence of the late John Turner, near this place, consisting of a large lot of live stock, bacon, and all the moveable property, on a credit of twelve months.

The negroes belonging to the estate will not be sold until the 21st of April.

There were two men killed on the Nashville & Chattanooga Railroad last Wednesday; one near the Tunnel and the other at Decherd Depot. We did not learn their names.

Dr. M. W. Francis tenders his professional services to the citizens of Winchester and Franklin county. He can always be found during the day on the corner of the square in the house formerly occupied by Mr. Taylor.

Daguerreotypes.—It is almost unnecessary to say anything concerning the ability of the Hughes Brothers in this beautiful art, for their skill and industry is already widely known. They are yet on Union street, prepared with every improvement, and ready, in all kinds of weather, to accommodate visitors.

Convicted.—We see from the Fayetteville Observer that the case of Tom, a negro belonging to Mr. Hawkins of this county, charged with the murder of Mrs. Barnes, was decided in his conviction. It is rumored that an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court.

The card of Dr. A. G. Clifton appears in our columns to-day. He tenders his professional services to the citizens of our county, and the public generally.

We are sorry to learn, from an extra of the Murfreesboro (Tenn.) Telegraph, that quite a destructive fire occurred in that place on the morning of the 15th inst., reducing fourteen houses to ruins, several of which were fine three-story brick buildings. The Telegraph says that the whole loss sustained cannot be short of thirty thousand dollars, and only seven thousand covered by insurance. Had we the room in our paper to spare we would give the particulars of the fire, and the names of those injured.

This is truly a calamitous fire to befall the beautiful town of Murfreesboro, but we believe the generous public spirit of its enterprising citizens will not long permit the open space created by so large a fire to remain, but will soon again stock it with fine buildings.

It is likely that horse dealers would find the book of Garrett Kirk a useful companion. The North Ala. Register says that it is not a humbug, but a really valuable book. It can be procured either from the author at Jasper, Marion county, Tenn., or from his travelling agents.

The Huntsville Independent announces that the last rail has been laid on the Memphis and Charleston road in Jackson county, between Tusculum and Stevenson.

Negro labor seems to be in great demand in Gonzales, Texas. A common field hand was hired for one year, week before last, for three hundred dollars.

We have just called to see the new stock of dry goods opened this week, by those enterprising young merchants, Handly & Henderson, and must say that Mr. Handly displayed most excellent taste in selecting their stock. They are both young men, trained at the counter, and are deserving of patronage and success. The ladies, particularly, should go around and examine their goods. They have a great variety, and in our judgment very creditable to their taste. The ladies' dresses are unusually beautiful.

The Baltimore American states that Governor Aiken, of South Carolina, was privately interrogated by the American members of Congress, previous to the plurality vote for Speaker, and subscribed to their platform in a very satisfactory manner.

S. A. Lockhart advertises to-day a large stock of Stoves, Sheet Iron Wares, every variety of Tin Wares, and all things usually kept in such establishments. Mr. Lockhart deserves much patronage for his energy and business tact, and we hope he will receive it.

Henry, the Barber, advertises his Shop and Bathing Saloon in to-day's paper, as being thoroughly refitted for the heat of the summer months, and in fact all seasons.

Singular.—The Medical Press recently contained an article showing that an eruptive disease had been communicated by a lion to its keeper; and the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal narrates a case in which a similar disease was communicated to a whole family, by a favorite dog.

W. & R. Freeman will be found at No. 12 College street, Nashville, prepared with every variety of Furniture for the accommodation of any who wish to purchase either by wholesale or retail.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Armstrong & Co. in this morning's issue. They are doing a heavy business, and wish to increase it still.

A. H. Roscoe is an accommodating wholesale and retail druggist, on the corner of Broad and Market streets, and we have every confidence that those dealing with him will receive satisfaction.

Some exchange, characterizing society in our cities, well remarked that at a stranger's debut in Boston, they ask, "what does he know?" In New York, "what is he worth?" In Philadelphia, "who is he?" and in Washington, "is he agreeable?"

MARRIED.—In Nashville, Thursday, 13th inst., by Rev. Dr. Langdon, Mr. DAVID F. WALLACE, and Miss SUE T. MURRAY.

But earlier happy is the rose distilled, Than that which, withering on the virgin thorn, Grows, lives, and dies, in single blessedness.

EARLIEST BUDS OF SPRING.
HANDLY & HENDERSON

Inform the public generally that they have just opened a new and select assortment of DRY GOODS, consisting of "EVERY THING." They have been flattered by their friends who have seen their stock, that more beautiful and tasteful goods have never been brought to Winchester.

Particular attention has been paid to the WANTS OF THE LADIES in making selections, and they have no hesitation in saying that their assortment of ladies' dresses, &c., is superbly beautiful, and embraces an extensive variety, all of which they are determined to

SELL CHEAP.
They have made an early start in purchasing their goods, in order that the Eastern market might not be picked over before they made their purchases. Give them a call and they will make it to your interest to patronize them.

Winchester, Mar. 22. (f)

MEDICAL NOTICE.
Dr. A. G. Clifton having permanently located in Winchester offers his professional services to the citizens of the county. Office on Main street, one door above J. H. Knox's family grocery; residence, one formerly occupied by F. T. Estill, Esq. Mar. 22

BATHING SALOON AND BARBER SHOP.

Henry, the Barber, takes pleasure in saying to his old friends and patrons, and the public generally, that he has fitted up in connection with his Barber Shop, a good

BATHING SALOON, where he is at all times prepared to furnish gentlemen with warm, cold and shower baths, at the uniform price of 25 cents each. And as the cleansing of the body is a thing conducive to health and pleasure, he flatters himself that he will receive a liberal patronage. Shaving and hair-dressing also continued as usual, after the most approved styles. A supply of the finest Cigars always on hand. HENRY, the Barber. Mar. 22

What Wisconsin Newspapers are Worth.—The first copy struck off of the Newport Mirror, a new paper recently started at Newport, was sold at auction for sixty-five dollars, the second for ten dollars, and the third for five dollars. The papers were purchased and paid for by men who intend to preserve them as mementoes of the beginning of a city which they expect to see spring up about the spot, now a wilderness, where the papers were struck off.
